

What is ACEP?

The American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP) is the first and largest professional organization of emergency medicine physicians in the United States. It was founded in 1968. In August 2018, ACEP had over 39,000 members.

What is Montana ACEP?

The Montana Chapter of the American College of Emergency Physicians is the local chapter of the American College of Emergency Physicians. Montana ACEP is dedicated to advancing excellence in emergency care, and advocating for emergency physicians, their patients and the health of Montana communities.

How many members does Montana ACEP have?

Currently, membership is comprised of around 95 Montana emergency physicians.

Can you be a member of the Montana Chapter independently of membership in the national organization?

Montana ACEP Bylaws require membership in the American College of Emergency Physicians.

Who can be a member of ACEP/Montana ACEP?

Active membership in ACEP is available to physician emergency specialists who meet one of the following requirements:

- Satisfactory completion of an emergency medicine residency accredited by the Accreditation Council on Graduate Medical Education (ACGME)
- Satisfactory completion of an emergency medicine subspecialty-training program accredited by ACGME
- Satisfactory completion of an emergency medicine residency training program accredited by the American Osteopathic Association (AOA)
- Satisfactory completion of an emergency medicine residency program approved by an ACEP-recognized accrediting body in a foreign country
- Certification by an emergency medicine certifying body recognized by ACEP
- Membership categories are also available for Emergency Medicine Residents, Medical Students, and Interns

How often does the Montana ACEP Board of Directors meet?

The Montana Board of Directors typically meets twice a year.

Who can attend Montana ACEP quarterly meetings?

Any Montana member in good standing may attend Montana Chapter meetings. Non-members, Residents and Medical Students wishing to attend these meetings must contact the Montana Chapter in advance for approval.